JUDGMENT OF DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE (With Minor Children)

This matter is before this Court on Plaintiff's Petition for Dissolution of Marriage. The Plaintiff is present in person, pro se. The Defendant is present in person, pro se. Testimony heard. Agreement of the parties spread of record. Based upon the testimony heard this Court FINDS as follows:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter, both parties having resided in Illinois for more than 90 days preceding the date of this Order.
2. Venue is proper, as both parties reside in the Circuit Court for the Seventh Judicial Circuit, Sangamon County, Illinois.
3. The parties were lawfully joined in marriage on _____ in County, _____ where the marriage of the parties was registered.
4. The parties lived together as Husband and Wife until _____ at which time they separated.
5. The parties have acquired certain personal and marital property. The parties have also acquired certain marital debts.
6. The following children, with their date of birth, were born to the marriage of the parties:

No other children were born to the marriage, none were adopted, and to the best of her knowledge the wife is/is not pregnant by the husband.

7. The parties have entered into an agreement that addresses the issues of property, debts, child custody, child support, visitation and maintenance. The agreement is set forth in this judgment. The agreement is fair to both parties and is not unconscionable and is in the best interests of the minor children.
8. Irreconcilable differences have caused the irretrievable breakdown of the marriage, without cause or provocation by either party. The parties have attempted to reconcile those differences, without success, and future attempts to reconcile those differences would not be in the best interests of the family unit. The parties have executed a waiver of the two year period of separation.
 The Defendant has been guilty of extreme and repeated acts of mental cruelty, without cause or provocation on the part of the Plaintiff.

The court therefore ORDERS as follows:

A. The marriage of the Plaintiff and Defendant is dissolved.
